Tell a small story in six shots

What information does each frame give the viewer?

My change

What is different between the opening and ending?

Six panels

Draw or label what each shot shows.

New information

Which panel adds something the viewer needs?

A possible gap

What might a viewer still need to understand?

Keep it, change it or leave it here. Sharing is optional.