Write a graphic score legend

What must a reader know before a symbol becomes a musical instruction?

My symbol key

State each symbol's duration and whether it starts sound or silence.

My time trace

Mark the start and end of each symbol, including silence.

One changed order

Keep the key and total duration fixed; show what changed.

What could two readers legitimately do differently?

Keep it, change it or leave it here. Sharing is optional.
